

December 17, 2009

ANDREY TOMKIW SHARES WORKPLACE AND EMPLOYMENT LAW INSIGHT WITH NATIONAL SIRIUS SATELLITE RADIO AUDIENCE

ROYAL OAK, Mich. – Sirius Satellite Radio’s “Road Dog Trucking” channel recently called on Andrey T. Tomkiw of Royal Oak-based Tomkiw Dalton, plc to share his employment law expertise with the listeners of “The Lockridge Report” in a live one-hour interview.

Award-winning journalist and radio host Evan Lockridge asked Tomkiw to weigh in on various workplace and employment law issues related to complaints filed against two trucking companies by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Tomkiw also answered live questions about employee rights from listeners across the nation.

The first case discussed in the interview was a federal lawsuit alleging racial discrimination and harassment at a Chicago trucking terminal. The second case, filed in the U.S. District Court of the Eastern District of Michigan, referenced violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act related to the alleged unlawful discharge of an employee after he notified his employer of his HIV-positive status.

“The Lockridge Report” broadcasts live every weekday from 2 to 4p.m. and is rebroadcast every weekday from 5 to 7a.m. on Sirius Radio channel 147.

Tomkiw Dalton, plc is a business law firm located in Royal Oak, Mich., offering a broad range of sophisticated legal services for businesses, communities and churches as general counsel, zoning and land use attorneys, management side labor and employment and commercial litigators. For more information, please visit www.tomkiwdalton.com or call (248) 591-7000